

Food Is Elementary

Antonia Demas, Ph.D.

“Food Is Good To Think”

--Claude Levi-Strauss

“An Army Marches On Its Stomach”

--Napoleon

“I believe it will be held a crime in the twentieth century to lure young bodies and minds to college [school] under the pretense of education only to poison them slowly with bad food.”

-- Ellen Richards, founder of the Home Economics Movement, c.1880

Students Experience the Sensory Value of Smell as it Relates to Taste

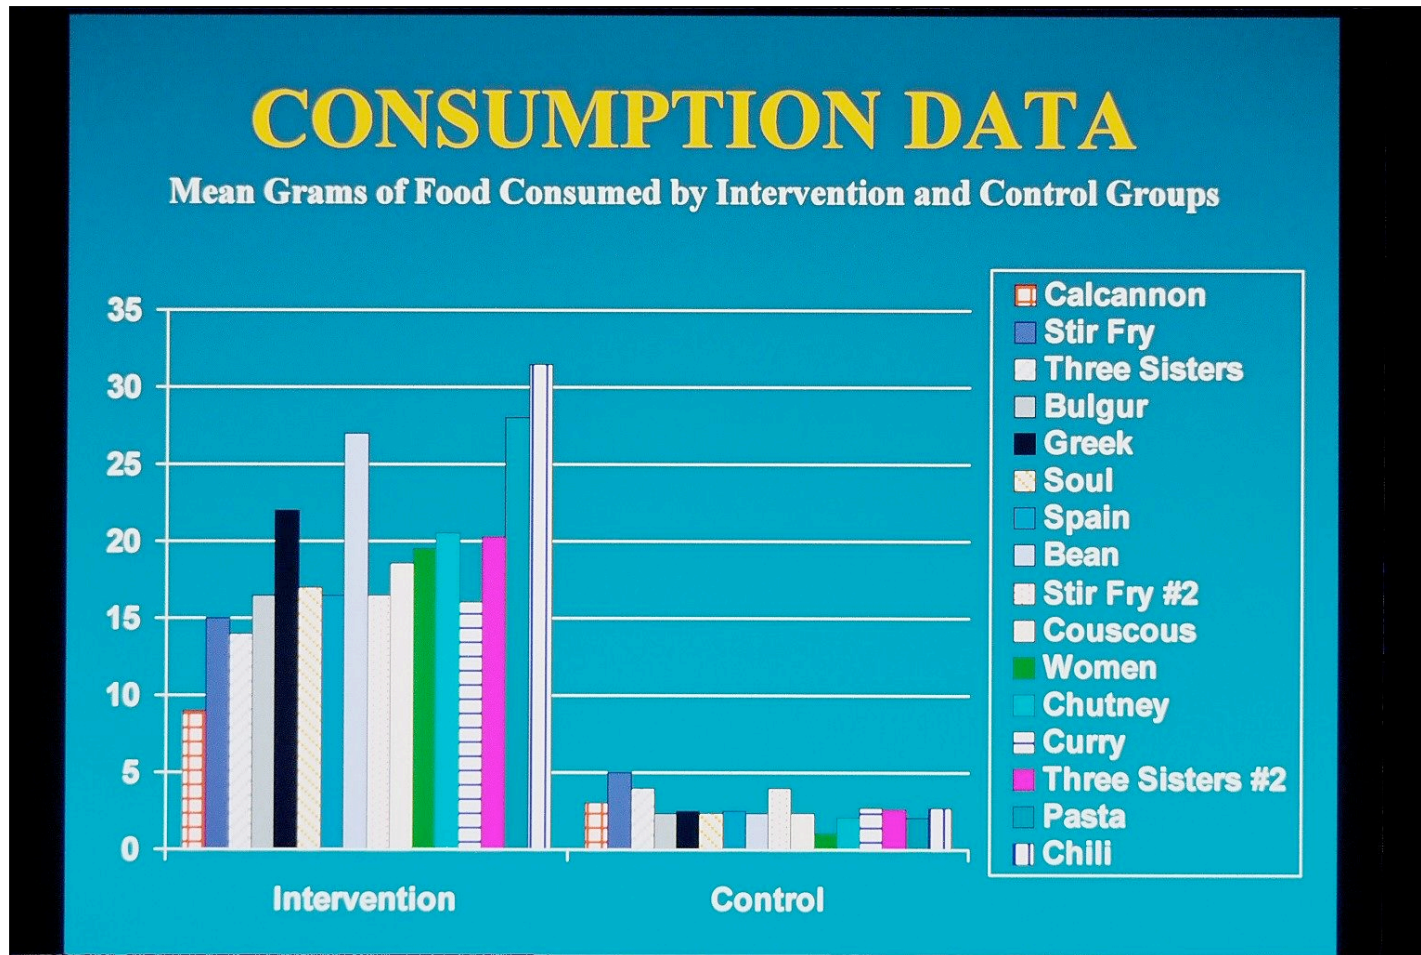

Vitamins as Colors

The Cafeteria

The Consumption Data

The Bay Point School for Boys Miami, Florida

Growing Taro to Eat at School

Food-based Murals

The Baltimore School Garden

Garden Grant Award

The Open House Meal

Create Positive Memories with Food

